

Electricity

02 May 2022

The wires, I think,
house an evil god.

I hear him questioning physis, doubting that all life lives of its own volition, and claiming, instead, for himself, the sole governorship of all things.

He who can read the signs has now not even the comfort of solitude, given this god's omnipresence.

I wonder how long it will be before happens some shocking conclusion.
