

The Secrets of Country Living

21 April 2018

For Robert Penn Warren

I do not know what you will find up there in the brambles

among inhibiting growths, but I have once heard an eagle call out its name.

It was a sound like Truth.