

20 August 2022

On this rock,
I have placed my insignia, placed it where all can see, as a warning against what has been and an omen of what must still be.

On this rock,
I explain my old purpose in words not yet known to most people, to teach and explain what we're doing here, lost as we are on Promethean shores.
